Publish your paper!

THE LATIN AMERICANIST ANNALS ISSUE

Presenters at the March 2020 SECOLAS meeting in Austin, Texas are encouraged to submit their papers for possible publication in The Latin Americanist Annals issue. The Annals edition is a peer-reviewed, multidisciplinary journal issue published by SECOLAS, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Winthrop University, and the University of North Carolina Press.

The Latin Americanist Annals issue publishes scholarly articles from any academic discipline that include original research concerning Latin America. Manuscripts may be in English, Spanish, or Portuguese, and should not exceed 25 double-spaced pages, including notes, tables, and works cited. Authors should include a 150-200 word abstract with their manuscripts.

Papers are chosen for their scholarship, general interest, readability, and interdisciplinary appeal to all Latin Americanists. A manuscript should be submitted electronically to The Latin Americanist at this location: <https://latinamericanist.submittable.com/submit>.

Inquiries and correspondence should be sent to the email addresses of the Co-Editors (below). The deadline for submissions is June 1, 2020.

Manuscripts should be formatted in the style sheet used in the contributor's discipline, such as University of Chicago, A Manual of Style, or the MLA Style Sheet.

Coming soon!

SECOLAS' new digital media project Discurso will feature short articles enhanced by rich media.

Discurso will be a forum for scholars and other observers to explore various topics about Latin American and Caribbean societies and their diasporas. The project will focus on the intersection of society and state, the pursuit of justice, the defense of rights, and its expression in cultural forms.

Discurso will complement SECOLAS' peer-reviewed academic journal, The Latin Americanist, and podcast Historias. To get learn more or get involved, contact us at secolas-org@uncc.edu.
